

PERSON CENTERED PLANNING +

We believe in sharing a collective knowledge of The various ways you can plan with a person. Person Centered Planning⁺ is a training designed to teach people the values, skills, and different methods of Person Centered Planning.

Person Centered Planning⁺ is an engaging way to support people to discover what's important to the person and what future they want to create. This three-day training will provide participants with the knowledge and experience to feel confident, facilitating both the conversation and graphics to represent people's hopes and dreams!

Person Centered Planning⁺ will introduce multiple planning methods designed to give participants the resources to choose what plan works best for the individuals they serve. There will be a demonstration of different techniques while creating the space for participants to facilitate and participate in live plans.

There is no one way to plan for a person's hopes and dreams
