Mains'l 7th Street Centre for the Arts Holiday show!

This year's holiday show is very special for 7th Street Centre for the Arts. As many of you know, we always assemble a variety show to celebrate the Holidays. This time around we decided to turn one of our classrooms into a makeshift television studio in order to film our performances live for you all to enjoy at home. Additionally all of the ideas for this year's sketches have come directly from the people that we serve. We hope you'll join us in celebrating their creativity, talent, and perseverance on Friday December 17th at 1pm and 4pm CST. The show will also be available afterwards on our YouTube channel Mains'l Distance Learning.
